

18. Oktober 2020

International Criminal Court (ICC)

Office of the Persecutor
Post Office Box 19519
2500 CM The Hague
The Netherlands

Saliha Sylbija,
Postfach 1514, 82362 Weilheim in OB, Deutschland

ICC Reference: OTP-CR-157/20

Why has my objection (dated on 23.07.2020) against the decision to not proceed my criminal complaint against „Endeavours to enforce me into crimes against humanity“ been sent back?

(In case for any language based impediments; please contact me for further informations at any time.)

APPLICANT: Ms. Saliha Sylbija, Geistbühelstr. 29, 82362 Weilheim in OB, Deutschland
(Legitimation — copy of the pasport has previously been provided)

Dear Madam and Sir,

On 2020-07-31 I sent the original copies of my objection to your decision OTP-CR-157/20 (of 2020-07-13)—in which you have informed me that you will not pursue my criminal complaint. (Preliminarily I had submitted the copies via eMail on 2020-07-23).

My letter/mail was returned to me on 2020-08-17— still inclosed.

My investigations in Germany have revealed that my letter was delivered at the international logistics center in Niderlande on 2020-08-15.

- I. Hereby I submit—once again—the original copies of my objection to your decision OTP-CR-157/20 (dated on 2020-07-13).

II. In addition: You might kindly explain the reasons for the rejection of my previous shipment.

Applicant:

Attachments:

1. ICC decision (of 2020-07-13)
2. presendes eMail
3. Send/shipping confirmation (incl. tracing number)
4. Delivery confirmation from Deutsche-Post
5. Returned letter page-1 & page-2